The movie is about a young girl, Rani (Tannishtha Chatterjee), who moves to Delhi and struggles with her teenage years. She and her friends try and find meaning in their lives by working at a call centre, where she meets all the boys she's ever wanted. Eventually, one of them introduces her to pot. With this newfound power, she begins to question what was missing from her life before. It is an informative and factual blog post that mainly focuses on explaining what the film is about as well as providing links for those who would like to watch it. However, the article also includes an opinion/discussion section in which the author expresses their views on the film. The reviews for this movie were extremely positive and many reviews stated that it was way better than all of Ayan Mukerji's previous works. Most reviews praised how this film had a fresh and interesting concept that was very realistic and relatable. The acting of Tannishtha Chatterjee was also highly spoken about as she managed to portray such a vulnerable character so well. The reviews for this movie were positive as well with several reviewers praising director Sriram Raghavan for handling such a delicate topic so well. The movie was seen as entertaining and exhilarating despite its serious theme of teenage drug addiction. This movie got a lot of publicity and all of it was either positive or neutral. The music for the film was composed by Ram Sampath while the lyrics were written by Ram Sampath, Swanand Kirkire and Aseem Ahmed. The music had a very indie vibe to it and even some critics stated that this is one of the best soundtracks of 2016. The music accordingly received very positive reviews by critics and audiences alike. One song in particular that gained popularity was "Galliyan" which has been played on several Indian radio stations since its release on YouTube in 2015. The film opened to mixed reviews. "The Times of India" gave it 3 out of 5 stars and said that "Baar Baar Dekho is a beautiful, class act". Meena Iyer of "Daily News and Analysis" called it "an honest portrayal of teenage life in the 21st century" while Saibal Chatterjee of NDTV said the movie was "eminently watchable" but not without its flaws. Rohit Vats of Hindustan Times gave the movie 3.5 stars out of 5 and noted that, "Baar Baar Dekho has its heart in the right place but it's not exactly an edge-of-the seat thriller. 'Baar Baar Dekho', a film that chronicles a teen's struggle with the dark side of the youth culture." "The Times of India" gave 4 out of 5 stars), called it an "excellent film". Meena Iyer from "Daily News and Analysis" gave it 3 stars out of 5 and said that "'Baar Baar Dekho" seems to be a little lost in its own attempt at being different. It's a decent effort but not going to break many box-office records", while Sushmita Saha from The Times of India gave it 2.
